

The proposal on the broadcast ownership seems like a step going backwards. If we allow more and more broadcasting stations to be owned by one company, there can be a perception of monopoly. With the heavy influence of media in our lives, when one company's view is seen that much in one media market, the influence can be substantial. I would seriously review the broadcast ownership. Thank you for your reading my comment.